

SOLE-COMMISSIONER COUNTIES

GEORGIA IS THE LAST STATE IN THE U.S . WITH SOLE-COMMISSION COUNTIES

As of Oct. 2003, they are:

North Georgia

Bartow, Chattooga, Haralson, Pickens, Towns, Union and Walker counties.

South Georgia

Bleckley and Pulaski counties.

Sole-commission counties cannot have vigorous and open public disclosure among commissioners, for there is only one.

Georgia is the last state in the union with sole-commission counties, according to the National Association of Counties in Washington, D.C.